

Since Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. What they are doing with Stolen Honor is clearly a violation of that trust. Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Are they willing to give one hour free time to a pro-Kerry show?

I am stunned that the FCC would allow this.